KCBHS Meeting October 20, 2011 - Kansas City A's alumni pitchers Ralph Terry and Rollie Sheldon appeared as special guests at the October 20 meeting held at the Westport Flea Market Bar/Grill. Both had also pitched in the glory years of the New York Yankees. Ralph Terry pitched for the Yankees and played in five World Series from 1960-1964, and was the 1962 World Series MVP. Rollie Sheldon was also with the Yankees from 1961-1965, and pitched in the 1964 World Series. Ralph Terry also surrendered the infamous game winning home run to Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates in Game 7 of the 1960 World Series. Both were great guests and talked about their careers in baseball in both New York and Kansas City. Both were with the Yankees in 1961, during the famous Roger Maris/Mickey Mantle home run race.
